

Please don't change the Telephone Privacy Law of Indiana. I used to get 2-3 calls a day from credit card offers and even magazine sales people. Now I can be sure if my phone rings it is someone I really want to talk to. Let the citizen of Indiana continue to enjoy dinner at home without annoying phone calls.